

1 Cancellation Window

Everstorm Outfitters allows customers to cancel any standard in-stock order within 30 minutes of placement using the self-serve account portal. Once the 30-minute window closes, orders enter our logistics queue and may no longer be eligible for cancellation through automated tools. We recommend reviewing your order confirmation email immediately after purchase to verify item selections, quantities, shipping address, and applied discount codes before the window expires.

2 How to Cancel

To cancel within the 30-minute window, log in to your account at everstorm.example/orders, locate the relevant order, and click the Cancel Order button on the order detail page. You will receive a cancellation confirmation email within five minutes of submitting the request.

If the 30-minute window has passed and you believe your order has not yet been picked or manifested for shipment, email orders@everstorm.example immediately with your order number in the subject line. Include your full name, the email address on the account, and a brief note requesting cancellation. Our logistics team monitors this inbox during business hours, 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Mountain Time, Monday through Saturday.

3 Cancellation Scenarios

The table below summarizes cancellation eligibility based on how much time has passed since the order was placed.

Scenario	Time Since Order	Can Cancel?	How
Within cancellation window	Less than 30 minutes	Yes	Self-serve portal at everstorm.example/orders
After window, pre-manifest	30 minutes to 2 hours	Possible	Email orders@everstorm.example immediately
After manifest or shipped	More than 2 hours	No	Use return process after delivery

Cancellations in the pre-manifest window are not guaranteed. If the order has already been assigned a carrier tracking number at the time your email is received, the cancellation request cannot be honored and you will need to follow the standard return process outlined at everstorm.example/returns.

4 Pre-Order Cancellations

Items listed as Pre-Order on the Everstorm Outfitters website may be cancelled at any time up to 48 hours before the listed estimated ship date shown on the product page and in your order confirmation. To cancel a pre-order, log in to everstorm.example/orders and use the Cancel Order button, or email orders@everstorm.example if the self-serve option is no longer available. Cancellation requests received fewer than 48 hours before the listed ship date cannot be accepted, as pre-order inventory is allocated and staged for fulfillment at that point.

5 Backorder Cancellations

If an item in your order moves to backorder status after purchase and stock is not restored within 21 calendar days, Everstorm Outfitters will automatically cancel the backordered item and issue a full refund to your original payment method. You will receive an email notification before the automatic cancellation is processed.

If you prefer to wait beyond the 21-day threshold, reply to that notification email confirming you wish to remain on backorder. Customers who opt to wait will receive a status update every 14 days. You may cancel your backorder hold at any point before a ship date is confirmed by emailing orders@everstorm.example.

6 Refund Timeline

Once a cancellation is confirmed by our team, refunds are processed within 2 to 3 business days to the original payment method used at checkout. Depending on your bank or card issuer, the credit may take an additional 3 to 5 business days to appear on your statement. Digital wallet payments such as PayPal or Apple Pay typically reflect refunds within 1 to 2 business days after processing. Everstorm Outfitters does not issue refunds in the form of store credit unless explicitly requested by the customer.

7 Non-Cancellable Orders

The following order types cannot be cancelled under any circumstances once the order has been submitted:

- Custom embroidered items, including personalized packs, apparel, and gear with name or logo embroidery added at checkout
- Digital gift cards where the card code has already been delivered to the recipient email address on file

If you believe a digital gift card was sent to an incorrect email address, contact us within 30 minutes of purchase and we will attempt to intercept delivery before the code is issued.
